Connect to College

C2C Orientation

MINNESOTA STATE COLLEGE SOUTHEAST

What is the C2C program?

- Provides academically challenging college courses to qualified students without leaving their high schools
- Decreases the expense of a college education by offering college-level credit courses while still in high school
- Courses are taught by high school instructors with the collaboration of college faculty
- C2C courses follow the high school calendar

What you and your parents need to know:

- C2C courses offer the same curriculum as courses held at Southeast in Winona, Red Wing, and online
- C2C courses are taught by qualified high school teachers who work in conjunction with a collaborating college faculty
- C2C courses have college-level rigor, depth and expectations

*For more information please see the C2C Student/Parent Guide and other resources at www.southeastmn.edu/c2c.

Want your parent involved in communicating with the college?

- Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- Southeast will not permit access to or release personal, identifiable information contained in student educational records without the written consent of each student to any third party (including parent/guardian, dependent, or spouse/domestic partner), except as authorized by FERPA or other applicable laws.
- If you would like to authorize to release your student information, you can find the Authorization to Release Student Info Form on the Student Forms page at www.southeastmn.edu/current_student/forms/index.aspx.

What types of courses are offered?

Biology	Chemistry
Construction/ CNC	English
Psychology	Literature
Speech	History
Math	Sociology

•Courses are typically part of the MN Transfer Curriculum

•May also transfer to other colleges and universities, including Minnesota private colleges

•Courses may lead directly to employment (Engineering/CNC Certificate)

What are course expectations?

- Follow Southeast course outlines, objectives, outcomes, and assessments
- Maintain Southeast course rigor and depth for all assignments and testing
- As a general rule, for each hour in class, allow two hours of time to study outside of class.

Southeast Student Handbook

- The Student Handbook is intended to help you navigate your college experience. These guidelines will help you understand the college's expectations for successful completion of your goals. https://www.southeastmn.edu/current_student/page.aspx?id=12110
- Section A: College Information and Policies
  - Data Privacy
  - Preferred Name and Contact Information
  - Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
    - Reasonable college accommodations
- Section B: College Services
  - Student Health and Wellness
  - Information Technology

Southeast Student Handbook cont.

- Section C: Student Rules, Responsibilities and Rights
  - Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity
- Section D: Planning Your Academic Path
  - Drop/Add dates (PSEO Law, https://www.revisor.mn.gov/statutes/cite/124D.09)
    - If you register for a class and decide you no longer want to receive college credit, contact your high school teacher, counselor, or principal. You will need to log in to your e-Services account to complete the withdraw process. Contact the Director of Secondary Relations if assistance is needed in the process. If a student drops a class within the first 10 days, the course will not appear on the Southeast transcript.
    - After 10 days and up to 80% of the course, a dropped course appears as a "W" or 'Withdrawal from Course' grade on your college transcript and may affect your academic standing and future admission to other colleges.
    - Students may remain in the course and receive high school credit without college credit.
- Section E: Academic Success
  - Satisfactory Academic Progress
    - Cumulative GPA of 2.0 and 67% course competition
    - Academic Warning/Suspension
    - Impact on future Financial Aid

Grading Information

Grades

- No "+" or "-" are given in Concurrent classes
- "W" or "F" grades means earning no credit and could result in not graduating high school
- College transcripts will follow you for your entire college career
- Transfer course grades follows you to future colleges/universities

Attendance

• In class attendance is important and could affect your grade

Time-management is vital to your SUCCESS!

Student Resources

- Resources are available to aid in your success.
  - D2L (Southeast online learning platform): www.southeastmn.edu/d2l
  - Student Life: www.southeastmn.edu/studentlife

  - CareerForce: https://www.careerforcemn.com/online-tools

Now that I know what a C2C course is and what is expected, what if I am not sure I want to take it for college credit?

- Immediately meet with your High School Instructor and Counselor
- If you no longer want to take the course for college credit, log in to your e-Services account to drop or withdraw from the course.

(https://eservices.minnstate.edu/registration/search/basic.html?campusid=261)

- Contact the Director of Secondary Relations at Southeast if assistance is needed.
- Students may remain in the course and receive high school credit without college credit.

Forms

- As a PSEO/C2C student, information regarding your semester enrollment, academic performance and transcripts will be shared with your high school. By reviewing the C2C Orientation PowerPoint Presentation and enrolling in courses through the PSEO/C2C Program, you agree to adhere to PSEO/C2C and MSC Southeast policies.
- If you would like to authorize to release your student information, you can find the Authorization to Release Student Info Form on the Student Forms page at www.southeastmn.edu/current_student/forms/index.aspx.
